

PHILLIP STONEMAN

hello@phillipstoneman.co.uk

Personal Statement

I am the Station Sound producer at BBC Hereford & Worcester; I adore the medium of radio and am, based in the West Midlands. I have produced programmes at every hour of the schedule, I have presentation experience and am also involved in BBC Music Introducing & BBC Upload, championing contributors' creations and their own development.

Experience (BBC)

BBC Hereford & Worcester Station Sound Producer Oct 2016—Present

- Scripting, production and scheduling of programme, station and campaign radio trails; including the launch and branding of four new programmes
- Helping showcase key station messages and programme content across output and online channels; from creating videos to adjusting programme schedules and the BBC H&W website
- Implemented the 2020 jingle package and the DIRA! playout system when introduced, and am a regular point of contact for the MusicMaster logging, reporting & scheduling system

BBC Hereford & Worcester Evening Show Producer Mar 2020—Jan 2022

- Stepped up to produce Kate Justice's extended live four hour evening show following the then temporary covid-schedules; injecting my high production ethos into the programme
- Established three new weekly features involving and including formerly unreachable audiences; developing a wide range of contacts who continue to bring new stories
- Ran BBC Hereford & Worcester's Airwaves Festival in May 2021, bringing together 35 performances spread over 16 hours of output, including all visual, radio and social media branding

BBC Hereford & Worcester Afternoon Show Producer Jan—Jun 2019 & Jan 2021—Jan 2022

- First stepped up during a colleague's extended sick leave, then in 2021 due to redundancy
- Sourced stories from international and local names of film, TV, music and theatre—including making the most of top class contributors, such as recording at Toyah Willcox's house

BBC Asian Network Assistant Producer Sep 2015—Oct 2019

- Freelance casual producer for programmes across the schedule, from general entertainment to DJ, late night comedy and specialist language programmes
- Stepped up to produce a day's worth of live output solo during 'The Beast From The East'

Achievements

Winner, Local Radio Station Of The Year, ARIAs 2020
BBC Hereford & Worcester

Silver, Station of the Year, Hospital Radio Awards 2019
BHBN Hospital Radio

Winner, Station of the Year, Hospital Radio Awards 2018
BHBN Hospital Radio

Silver, Excellence in Production, Frank Gillard Awards 2017
Station Sound at BBC Hereford & Worcester

PHILLIP STONEMAN

hello@phillipstoneman.co.uk

Voluntary Experience

BHBN Radio Sports Editor Mar 2018—Oct 2020

- Coordinated and presented the weekly 2-6pm Saturday sport show, including commentary spots for Aston Villa, Birmingham City and West Bromwich Albion home matches for hospital patient listeners; studio produced coverage of three Wembley finals
- Brought greater coverage of non-football sports, including tennis, badminton, athletics and boxing, including training reporters in preparing and sending pre-recording reports
- Established links with the Birmingham Transplant Sport community, showcasing and reporting from the British Transplant Games in Birmingham 2018 and Newport 2019

BHBN Radio Honorary Secretary Nov 2017—Mar 2021

- Ran social events, liaised with members to answer queries and fulfil legal administration duties
- Assisted the transition of The Network from a company limited by guarantee to Charitable Incorporated Organisation

RaW 1251AM Presenter/Producer/Newsreader 2012—2015

RaW 1251AM Secretary & Deputy/Acting Station Manager 2014—2015

RaW 1251AM Head of Production 2013—2014

- Presented my own award-winning student radio show, Living Up The Weekend (Best New Show 2012 at the station's own awards ceremony)
- Regular newsreader and news reporter at student democracy events
- Created on-air imaging and social media publicity (and as Acting Station Manager) coordinating the flagship outside broadcasts from Varsity sports coverage to Student Union elections and our 100 hour charity outside broadcast, The MaRaWthon
- Expanded membership numbers and sold out at a new, increased capacity venue for the end of year station awards do, The RaWards

Education

University of Warwick BSc Economics (Hons) 2015

A Levels Economics & Business (A*), Maths (A*), History (A), English Literature (A) 2012
Further Maths (B)

GCSEs 11 at A* 2009

Referees

Jeremy Pollock
Editor, BBC Hereford & Worcester
Hylton Road
Worcester
WR2 5WW

Andrew Marston
BBC Introducing in Hereford & Worcester
Hylton Road
Worcester
WR2 5WW