MEET PHILLIP

Birmingham-based freelance producer with experience across BBC national & local, community and student radio, working across a variety of programme genres.

EXPERIENCE

BBC Hereford & Worcester | 2016-Present

Freelance production, event and station sound Broadcast Assistant. Using Adobe Audition on a daily basis to create original trails and imaging, edit audio pieces - often mid-programme - and brand pre-recorded shows. Regular cover for writing and reading travel bulletins.

BBC Asian Network | 2015-Present

Freelance Assistant Producer across all Birmingham shows, from weekend breakfast to specialist language and late night comedy.

BHBN Hospital Radio | 2015-Present

Honary Secretary & Sports Editor, and director since December 2016. Present and co-ordinate the weekly Saturday sport show, with occasional football & cricket commentary. Launched the station's Mixcloud page and edited our HBA-nominated Best Station entry.

Bay FM | 2014-18

Created publicity materials and social media assets across commercial adverts and many show and station rebrands, using my strong familiarity with Adobe Photoshop.

RaW 1251AM | 2012-15

Former Head of Production, Secretary, Deputy (& Acting) Station Manager. Significant on-air experience, from presenting my own award-winning show to regular news reading and reporting. Co-ordinated the station's flagship outside broadcasts, including the SRA nominated 100 hour charity broadcast. Ran the society's events, including the 2015 annual awards ceremony, selling out despite moving to a 20% bigger venue.
